ARTICLE II: NAME & OBJECTIVES OF THE FEDERATION

2.01 Name

The name of the organization is the Arts and Science Federation of Associations at Concordia (ASFA) / la Fédération des associations étudiantes en Arts et Sciences à Concordia (FAEAS), afterwards designated as "the Federation".

2.02 Goals

The Federation is a student organization having the goals of promoting and defending the academic, economic and social interests of its members.

2.03 Areas of Involvement

- a) The Federation may take positions on any action, measure or situation of a pedagogical, political, economical and social nature which is of interest — in whole or in part — to its members.
- b) The Federation can equally participate in social movements which serve to better the life — in whole or in part — of its members (education, environment, peace & disarmament, social concerns, etc.)
- c) The Federation can take any legal means of involvement and action necessary to realize its objectives.

2.04 Affiliation

The Federation may be affiliated to any regional, provincial or federal group which is in line with the positions and the objectives of the Federation.

ARTICLE III: MEMBERS

3.01 Local Student Associations

The many LSAs within the Faculty comprise the basis of the Federation. Any student from the Faculty of Arts & Science, pursuing a BA, BEd or BSc, is a member of their respective Local Student Association (LSA) and, thus, the Federation. LSAs within academic units having student members in more than one faculty are members of ASFA with all rights, duties, and privileges.

3.02 Rights of Motion and of Vote

All members have the right to vote and/or move motions in referenda, general elections and assemblies of their respective LSA, as well as vote in referenda and elections of the Federation.

3.03 Eligibility

Members are eligible to run for elected posts within the bodies of the Federation.

3.04 Access to Services

All paid-up members of the Federation have access to any services offered by the Federation.

3.05 Access to Financial Books

All members have access to the financial books of the Federation.

3.06 Access to Political Documents

All members have access to copies of the constitution and the standing orders of the Federation.

ARTICLE IV: LOCAL STUDENT ASSOCIATIONS

4.01 Composition

A Local Student Association (LSA) groups students enrolled in a particular area of study (department, school, college, specialized programme) within the Faculty. Within the Federation, only one LSA per area, as prescribed in the University's academic calendar, is recognized by the Federation.

4.02 Areas of Involvement

The LSAs are responsible for the election of one (1) delegate and one (1) alternate to represent them at the IDA. Both the delegate and the alternate will have a mandate of one (1) year maximum, starting April 1st, and are subject to immediate recall at any time.

4.03 Structures

The LSA sees to the provision of structures necessary to the proper development from student life to the sending of information and to mobilization (committees, representation on its departmental bodies).

4.04 Accountability at the Departmental Councils

Whenever a LSA decides to send student representatives to their respective Departmental Council, it makes them bound to any mandates given to them by it and can recall them at any time.

4.05 Meetings

The LSA meets at least once per semester. Such a meeting must be announced by poster and by other means at least one (1) week in advance. In the case of an emergency meeting, advance notice is two (2) days.

ARTICLE V: THE INTER-DEPARTMENTAL ASSEMBLY

5.01 Definition

The Inter-Departmental Assembly (IDA) is the highest decision-making body of the Federation.

5.02 Composition

The IDA comprises one (1) delegate from each LSA represented within the Faculty. Each LSA is entitled to one vote, as well as one (1) alternate to the IDA in the event the delegate cannot be present.

5.03 Quorum

Quorum for holding an IDA is 1/3 of all filled seats as determined by the number of existing and active representative LSAs.

5.04 Role

The role of the IDA is:

- a) to hear, discuss, formulate a programme of common demands and take united actions based on the complaints and demands of students from different LSAs;
- b) to oversee the elaboration of a general Federation policy and to present precise motions in the event of an AGC or a referendum vote;
- c) to receive and evaluate Executive reports between AGCs and to ensure that they fulfil their respective mandates;
- d) to propose agendas for the AGC, as well as approving questions for any referendum;
- e) to elect people to any ad-hoc committee it creates.

5.05 Meetings

- a) IDAs are open to all students.
- b) The IDA is convened with five (5) school days advanced notice. The agenda proposed by the Executive must be made at least three (3) school days in advance of the meeting in question. In the case of an emergency meeting, the IDA may be convened with forty-eight (48) hours advanced notice. The agenda for an emergency meeting must be made available at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance. Such a meeting is convened by the Executive or by a request of seven (7) LSAs via their delegates who sign a request to this effect.

- c) Meetings of the IDA take place monthly on the third Wednesday. In the event that a holiday occurs at that time, the IDA meeting then takes place on the following Wednesday.

5.06 Ad-Hoc Committees

- a) The IDA can create committees with precise mandates responding to specific needs;
- b) Any student can be chosen to sit on these committees;
- c) The IDA verifies or renews at least once a year at the beginning of the Fall session the mandate(s) and composition of any Ad-Hoc Committees.

ARTICLE VI: DELEGATES TO THE I.D.A.

6.01 Role

- a) A delegate attends all meetings of the IDA and reports to it and supports the motions and/or policies adopted by their respective LSA.
- b) The delegate brings to the IDA the complaints and demands of the students from his/her LSA and reports on them.
- c) S/he informs his/her LSA or the decisional body between his/her LSA's meetings what was discussed at the IDA and ensures wide dissemination of this information within the jurisdiction of his/her LSA.
- d) S/he attains a mandate on questions arising from the IDA itself.

ARTICLE VII: THE EXECUTIVE

7.01 Accountability

The Executive is elected via general elections, is accountable to the IDA and the Arts & Science student population in general and is subject to immediate recall as per Article 12.01b.

7.02 Duration of Mandate

The duration of the Executive's mandate is from May 1st until April 30th of the following year.

7.03 Role

The role of the Executive is:

- a) to convene the AGC and the IDAs;
- b) to prepare agendas and any pertinent documents for the IDA;
- c) to organize campaigns and actions of the Federation corresponding to the mandates received;
- d) to report on its work to the AGC and the IDA;
- e) to note and follow up on grievances.

7.04 Composition

Members of the Executive are jointly responsible for the mandates conferred to them by the AGC or the IDA.

a) President:

- i) is the principal representative of the Federation;
- ii) is responsible for relations from the Federation with the many university bodies — particularly in the Faculty of Arts & Science — and with other groups such as unions and professional associations;
- iii) supervises and co-ordinates the delegates' participation on committees, commissions and university councils with particular regard to the Faculty of Arts & Science;
- iv) co-ordinate the activities of the Executive and see to the convening of its meetings;
- v) sees to the planning, the organization, the direction and to the control of the Federation's employees;
- vi) signs all official Federation documents;
- vii) is Chair of the IDA and the AGC;
- viii) is a member of the ASFC;
- ix) is a member of the Board of Governors, pending approval by the Concordia Student Union;
- x) is responsible, generally, for the proper functioning of the Federation.

b) Vice President Communications:

- i) is responsible for the collection and dissemination of all information pertinent to the goals pursued by the Federation;
- ii) is press attaché of the Federation;
- iii) sees to the proper circulation of information inside and outside the Federation;
- iv) is responsible for the information media of the Federation (Newspaper, newsletter, or others);
- v) is Recording Secretary of the IDA and the AGC;
- vi) becomes President in the event of the latter resigning, having been impeached, or having been incapacitated;
- vii) is Chair of the Communications Committee.

c) Vice President Liaison:

- i) is in charge of proper relations between the Federation and any student association outside of Concordia, as well as adequately representing the policies of the Federation in the off-campus milieu;
- ii) supervises the committees and delegates of the Federation to these organizations;
- iii) is the liaison between ASFA and its own LSAs.
- iv) is Chair of the External Affairs Committee.

d) Vice President Academic:

- i) is responsible for all academic matters and research within the Faculty;
- ii) oversees the co-ordination of the Federation's activities by stimulating student participation in their educational training within the Faculty;
- iii) oversees the collection and circulates all information concerning education as seen within the Faculty and within other establishments;
- iv) is a liaison between ASFA and other faculty associations, as well as the Concordia Student Union;
- v) is a member of ASFC;
- vi) is a member of the Senate, pending approval by the CSU;
- vii) is Chair of the Academic Affairs Committee.

e) Vice President Finance and Services:

- i) is generally responsible for the proper management of the Federation's monies;
- ii) is responsible for the keeping the books of the Federation;
- iii) makes a brief report to each IDA on the state of revenues and expenses of the Federation, and then a more detailed report to each General Assembly;
- iv) signs jointly all types of financial documents with one other member of the Executive;
- v) is responsible for the preparation of budgetary provisions and their presentation to the GA;
- vi) is responsible — at the end of each financial year — for the preparation of the Federation's financial state, the hiring of the auditors, then the presentation to the GA;
- vii) is responsible for overseeing the Federation's services;
- viii) is Chair of the Finance and Services Committee.

7.05 Eligibility

All members are eligible to be candidates for the Executive. All members wishing to be nominated for an Executive position must obtain official endorsement from their respective LSA(s). In the case where no LSA exists, any interested member may be nominated for office via nomination by ten (10) members of their respective academic unit.

7.06 Sub-Executives

The IDA, upon recommendation by the Executive, may choose, if necessary, to create Sub-Executive(s) positions for any purpose. Creation of any Sub-Executive position requires an absolute majority vote of the IDA. Any Sub-Executive position can be filled via a simple majority vote of the IDA.

ARTICLE VIII: ANNUAL GENERAL CONGRESS

8.01 Composition

The Annual General Congress (AGC) is formed of the LSAs of the Federation. The AGC is composed of one delegation per LSA, the number of delegates and rights to vote being fixed as follows:

- A LSA with less than five hundred (500) regular members has two (2) delegates and two (2) votes;
- A LSA with between five hundred (500) and less than one thousand (1000) regular members has three (3) delegates and three (3) votes;
- A LSA with one thousand or more (1000+) regular members has four (4) delegates and four (4) votes.

8.02 Convocation

- The AGC meets once a year during the final weekend of March.
- The agenda is set by the IDA. The agenda must be approved by 3/5 majority vote of the AGC with regular quorum. If 3/5 majority approval is not attained, then the AGC must decide what the new agenda will be.
- Publicity for the AGC occurs within campus media, where possible, and on posters throughout the university.
- Notice of convocation must include the agenda and all logistical points (date, time, place) of the AGC.

8.03 Quorum

Quorum at the AGC is fifty percent (50%) of existing and active LSAs.

8.04 Powers

The AGC has the power to:

- determine the Federation's activities for the next year;
- adopt, modify, or rescind the Bylaws of this constitution;
- adopt, modify, or rescind any resolution coming from it or the IDA;
- to adopt financial reports, and approve its auditors for the year;
- to strike any committee to assist it in its functions;
- to elect members to standing committees.

ARTICLE IX: REFERENDA

9.01 Requirements & Quorum

- Any referendum can be called by an absolute majority vote IDA or via a petition of at least five-hundred (500) members presented to the Executive. Notwithstanding the above, only the IDA may initiate referenda on questions concerning constitutional amendments or additions.
- Quorum for any ASFA referendum is 5% of the members.

9.01 Purpose

A referendum may be called for the following reasons:

- to amend the ASFA Constitution;
- to join an external organization relevant to the goals of the Federation;
- to take a stand on any issue or concern deemed appropriate;
- to decide on any other matter of importance to the Federation, as determined by the IDA or via petition.

ARTICLE X: GENERAL ELECTIONS

10.01 Elections

- Elections for the Executive are held during the month of March.
- Candidates for the Executive must obtain official endorsement from their respective LSA(s). In the event an LSA does not exist within the prospective candidate's academic unit, a nomination by 10 members of their respective academic unit on a nomination form. In both cases, notice via endorsement or nomination must be handed in fifteen days (15) before voting days to the Chief Returning Officer. Candidates for the Executive benefit from fourteen (14) days of campaigning but are not permitted to campaign on the day(s) of voting nor during the nomination period.
- The previous AGC selects an Elections Committee. This committee is in charge of receiving programmes and overseeing the general elections.
- Notices for election are to be posted throughout main student areas, as well as areas with high concentrations of Arts & Science students.
- Notices for election are also sent out to all LSAs one (1) month before the nomination period begins.

10.02 By-elections

By-elections may be held to fill one or more vacant positions. All vacancies are filled pro tempore by the IDA until a byelection can be held in either October, November, or January. Any byelection is held mutatis mutandis in accordance with Article 10.01, Paragraphs b, d, & e.

ARTICLE XI: UNIVERSITY BODIES

11.01 Nomination

The Federation via the IDA are responsible for nominating its representatives to University bodies on which it has representation.

11.02 Senate

- The Federation recommends to the Concordia Student Union two (2) representatives to sit at the University Senate, subject to ratification by the CSU.

- The ratified representatives, with the other student representatives on Senate, represent the undergraduate student population to the Senate, bringing to it the Arts & Science perspective.

- In its recommendation of candidates, they come, one apiece, from the following areas:

- Education, Pure Sciences, or Colleges/Schools/Institutes;
- Literature & Communications or Social Sciences

In the event that such quotas are unable to be met, the IDA will recommend two students from the Faculty arbitrarily.

- All student representatives to the Senate report back to the IDA at least once a month.

11.03 Arts & Science Faculty Council

- The Federation selects sixteen (16) representatives to sit at the Arts & Science Faculty Council (ASFC), of which two are to be the President and Vice President Academic of ASFA. Said representatives are to be first selected by the Academic Affairs Committee, then ratified by the IDA.

- The ratified representatives together represent the undergraduate student population to ASFC, bringing to it the perspectives of their respective sector to the student caucus.

- In the selection of its representatives, the student representatives come from the following sectors with the corresponding fraction of representation: i) Colleges/Schools/Institutes = 1/16
ii) Education = 1/16
iii) Literature & Communications = 1/4
iv) Pure Sciences = 1/4
v) Social Sciences = 3/8

In the event that such quotas cannot be met, the IDA will select fourteen students from the Faculty arbitrarily. Regardless of method, the President and Vice President Academic of ASFA are to be included in the overall number of undergraduate student representatives at the expense of the sectors outlined in Article 11.03c.

- All student representatives to ASFC report back to the IDA once a month.

- Both the Student Caucus leader and members of ASFC Committees are drawn from and elected by the undergraduate representatives to ASFC.

ARTICLE XII: ACCOUNTABILITY

12.01 Executive

- In addition to the duties outlined in Article 7.04, members of the Executive must be present at all IDAs.

- In the case of being derelict in duties, a member of the Executive can be removed by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the IDA or a petition of two-hundred (200) members of the Federation, including their names, signatures and student ID numbers. In the event that removal is demanded via a petition as outlined above, the IDA will meet to deliberate and vote on said petition.

12.02 Delegates to the IDA

- In addition to Article 6.01, delegates to the IDA cannot miss more than four (4) regular IDAs. Should this happen, the Alternate will assume Delegate status and the appropriate LSA will elect an alternate.

- If a delegate, or an alternate acting on a delegate's behalf, votes contrary to the mandate(s) given to him/her by his/her respective LSA, they can be recalled for judgement by a 2/3 LSA Executive vote or a petition of 25% of members within the LSA in question.

12.02 Representatives to University Bodies

- Representatives to ASFC cannot miss more than two (2) meetings of ASFC. Should this happen, said representative is considered to have resigned — and, as such, a report made of this — and is to be replaced as soon as possible as outlined in Article 11.03a.

- Representatives to Senate and Board of Governors are held accountable according to the regulations and/or constitution of the CSU, where appropriate.

ARTICLE XIII: PROCEDURAL CODE

- All meetings of the Federation are conducted using the latest edition of the Code Morin (English Edition), keeping in mind that modifications may be necessary in order to adapt to the realities of the Federation.

- Copies of the Code of Procedure are made available upon request to any member of the Federation

ARTICLE XIV: FISCAL YEAR

- The fiscal year of the Federation lasts from June 1st to May 31st of the following year.

ARTICLE XV: GENERAL PROVISIONS

15.01 Numbers

In this constitution, the singular includes the plural and the plural the singular, where appropriate.

15.02 Gender

The Federation's agents, officers and representatives must feminize, as long as it is within context, when speaking on behalf of the Federation and at meetings of the Federation.

15.03 Authority of the Constitution

In the event of any conflict between this constitution and the constitution of any LSA, this constitution takes precedence.

15.04 Conformity

All amendments, regulations, resolutions, motions or decisions of the Federation, including, but not limited to those made by or in the IDA, AGC or referenda and any LSA must be made in conformity with this constitution.

ARTICLE XVI: CONSTITUTION

16.01 Amendments

- Only via a two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of a quorum of members voting in a referendum can the Articles of this constitution be amended. Prior to doing this, only the IDA can initiate any amendments which are to be voted upon in a referendum.

- The Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the AGC.

- Any part of this constitution may be amended by the IDA but is only in force until the end of the current year.

16.02 Additions

- Any new articles proposed for this constitution are dealt with in the same fashion as Article 16.01a.

- Any new bylaws proposed for this constitution are dealt with in the same fashion as Article 16.01b.

16.02 Notice

- Notice for changes in the articles of this constitution as stated in Articles 16.01a and 16.02a are given to the Chief Returning Officer within two weeks prior to the campaign period of a duly called referendum.

- Notice for changes in the bylaws of this constitution as stated in Articles 16.01b and 16.02b are given to the Executive within two weeks prior to the AGC.

- Notice for pro tempore changes in the articles and bylaws of this constitution as stated in Article 16.01c is given to the Executive within two weeks prior to the next IDA meeting.

ARTICLE XVII: CONCLUSION

17.01: Dissolution of the Federation

- Only the Federation can announce its own dissolution. This dissolution must be voted first by each LSA within their own assemblies and then by the IDA, which approves the referendum whereby the students of Arts & Science have the chance to vote.

- In the case where the Federation is dissolved, all assets and property are to be transferred to the new organization representing Arts & Science students or, failing that, redistributed after liquidation to its member associations.
